SWINGING JAZZ - WITH A GREAT PINCH OF BLUES, SOUL & GROOVE

The band JAZZINTEAM impresses with varied arrangements and exciting interpretations of the selected standards, songs and original compositions by the Danish singer and bandleader Gitte Deubelbeiss.

The top-class rhythm section with Urs Luthard on piano, Emanuel Schnyder on double bass and Robert Weder on drums, offers plenty of room for the dark, variable voice of Gitte Deubelbeiss and the virtuoso sounds of special guest Tommy Inderbinen on tenor saxophone.

Swinging jazz with Nordic wideness - expressively and heartwarmingly realized.

Tommy Inderbinen ▶ Tenor saxophone

Anyone who wants to build good trumpets or saxophones must be first and foremost a thoroughbred musician. This is the only way he can anticipate an artist's expectations, says Tommy Inderbinen, who builds trumpets, saxophones, trombones, flugelhorns, flutes, and even the occasional euphonium for the greats of jazz.

His small factory and shop is located in Buchs, a small agglomeration community of Aarau, but his clients come from all over the world.

JAZZ & MORE

Urs Luthard ▶ Piano

Musician and exhibition designer with passion. Start in the world of music at the age of 6 with the violin and youth orchestras. At the age of 12 he discovered the piano as a perfect instrument for improvisation and as a balance to classical music. Initially autodidactic, later in courses at the jazz schools of Zurich, Basel and Lucerne. This was the basis of a great passion for this instrument and the further autodidactic way.

Urs Luthard has been playing the piano for 30 years in various band formations ranging from Jazz to Latin, Salsa, Funk, Blues and Soul.

Emanuel Schnyder ▶ Bass

In 1995 Emanuel Schnyder graduated from the Jazz School Lucerne with a degree in electric bass and since then he has continued his education in various musical genres. He regularly plays concerts in various formations at home and abroad.

His tours have taken him not only to Switzerland's neighboring countries but also to Eastern Europe, the Middle East, Asia, Canada and Central America. Pedagogically, he has been active in various schools and at different levels since his studies.

Robert Weder ▶ Drums

Already active in wind orchestras and bands in his early years, he broadened his spectrum by studying at the Hochschule für Musik in Bern (Swiss Jazz School) from 1988 to 1993. For more than 35 years he has played as a drummer in various jazz and crossover formations in Switzerland and abroad. Another passion is playing the piano and composing. In 2012 he was nominated as a film music composer for the Film Music Award, Short Film Sector, at the International Film Music Festival Cologne.
